Another Fire.

On Thursday of last week, a small boy was herding cattle on the prairie just west of Henry Kohlhauer's, ten miles north of Wa-Keeney: He had some matches in his pockets, and from some cause started a fire. The strong wind carried the flames er's place, and but for the assistance of the any purchases. neighbors would have burned his team, hauer had a fine grove of young trees on his farm; the fire ran through this and chimneys, etc., fixed up in preparation for did great damage, and perhaps entirely destroyed it.

Devouring Flames. Rooks County Record.

At 9 o'clock Friday evening fire was discovered in the little stable belonging to R. House, back of the Taylor livery stable. The firmes spread with great rapidity, but the occupants of the livery barn promptly ran out all the horses, and not a single animal was burned. Although the fire department was quickly on the scene, the light combustible material of which the barn was built and its inflammatory contents were ablaze throughout before a stream could be brought to play upon it. A little delay was caused by the water being turned on before one of the nozzles was attached. the water works engine. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklea's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle and Bucklen's

-The most common cause of sickness among children is disordered bowels. A high fever, headache, nausea, flatulency and a variety of symptoms are often present, and in some instances alarming. Something to open the bowels and tone up the stomach is usually all that is required. One dose of St. Patrick's Pills will always cure. They are safe in all with the K. P., which will make more than double the number of trains over this line. All the towns between Kansas City and Denver will be benefited by the new order of things.—[Abilese Gesette, 16.]
